Akermoor Ltd Privacy Policy (last updated 06 October 2026)

Akermoor Ltd ("we", "our", "us") respects your privacy and explains in this notice how personal data is handled under the UK GDPR.

We collect limited personal data such as contact details, company information, enquiry content, and engagement notes. Special category data is only retained where necessary and otherwise deleted.

We process data to respond to enquiries, deliver advisory services, manage contracts, maintain records, comply with law, and send essential updates. Lawful bases include Consent, Contract, Legitimate Interests, and Legal Obligation.

Data is retained for defined periods: up to 12 months for unsuccessful enquiries, the duration of an engagement plus up to seven years for client files, and six years for financial records.

We do not sell or rent data. Limited sharing may occur with professional advisers, insurers, or regulators subject to confidentiality and legal requirements. Specialist subcontractors are engaged only with appropriate data terms.

Data is primarily stored in the UK or EEA. If transferred internationally, adequacy decisions or recognised safeguards such as the UK International Data Transfer Agreement or EU Standard Contractual Clauses are applied.

You have rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, and objection. Requests can be made via privacy@akermoor.co.uk and will receive a response within one month. Consent may be withdrawn at any time.

We use Cloudflare Analytics and functional cookies which you can disable in browser settings. Disabling cookies may affect site functionality but not the ability to contact us.

Security measures include encrypted devices, role-based access, and periodic reviews of permissions. Services are not directed at children and we do not knowingly collect data from individuals under 18.

For concerns, contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk>. You can reach Akermoor Ltd at privacy@akermoor.co.uk or via the registered office address.

We do not provide FCA-regulated services, do not approve or communicate financial promotions, and do not arrange deals in investments.
